Company: Work Visa USA Jobs (move2usajobs.com LLC)

Location: Tropicana

Category: other-general

Description: Launch your game development career in the United States through our J-1 Governmental Sponsor Program, offering placements in traineeships and internships across a variety of states. As a Game Development Trainee/Intern, you'll dive into the creative and technical processes of game creation, from initial concept to final release. This position allows you to collaborate with experienced game developers, designers, and artists on projects that push the boundaries of gaming. Whether you're coding, designing levels, creating art, or testing gameplay, you'll gain invaluable hands-on experience in a dynamic and fast-paced industry. To Qualify: Candidates should be current students pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Game Development, Computer Science, Digital Arts, or a related field, or recent graduates with such a degree. A B1 level of English proficiency is required for effective communication within our diverse and collaborative team environments, though no formal language examination is needed. This opportunity is designed for those with a strong passion for video games and a desire to explore the game development industry from an international perspective. Starting Salary: A competitive starting salary of $2,000 to $4,000 monthly is offered, with the possibility of increasing to up to $9,500 for trainees and interns who demonstrate exceptional talent and contribute significantly to their projects. It is important to note that visa processing fees will apply for the J-1 Sponsorship, ensuring your legal entry and stay in the USA for the duration of your internship. This sponsorship is a critical step in allowing you to fully participate and immerse yourself in the game development industry. The Game Development Trainee/Intern position is more than just a job; it's an opportunity to be at the forefront of gaming innovation. This role offers the chance to develop your skills, work on exciting projects, and make your mark in the game development world. Join us and turn your passion for gaming into a career.
